How would you like to be contacted?

These details will be given to the tenant of any property you are interested in exchanging with and they may contact you direct to talk about exchanging. For example you can provide telephone number and email address.

HomeSwap Direct

By agreeing to participate in HomeSwap Direct, you are consenting to your property being advertised on other HomeSwap services. These services are national and the scheme is designed to increase your chances of successfully swapping your home. If you would prefer to opt out of the national scheme please tick here.

If you do wish to participate in the national scheme, please tell us the areas you would prefer to live in:

No personal data will be made available other than the property details you have submitted. Your name and address will not be made available on the websites. If a tenant from another HomeSwap service is interested in swapping with you, we will send you any contact from them to the email address you have provided, we will not provide them with your contact details unless you ask us to.

Declaration

I confirm that the details provide are correct and that I consent to the above contact details being passed on to the tenant of any mutual exchange properties that I apply for through DKO HomeSwap.
